The Chicagoland Apartment Marketing and Management Excellence Awards — billed as the “Academy Awards” of the Chicago area’s apartment industry — recently were presented to winners in all facets of the business.

About 800 apartment industry professionals attended the festivities, the 17th annual, at the Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile.

“The CAMMEs are special because they recognize people who on a daily basis extend themselves to residents and meet the challenges of day-to-day operation of property,” said Judy Roettig, executive vice president of the Chicagoland Apartment Association, the sponsor of the event. The CAA represents 6,000 apartment professionals owning/managing 550 properties and 120,000 apartments in the six-county Chicago area.

“We honor all those involved in the operation of apartment buildings — on-site managers, maintenance staff, landscapers, architects, marketing staff and many more,” she said.

Here are the winners of the most prestigious CAMMEs, the Property Excellence Award:

Tides at Lakeshore East

Best High-Rise Built after January 1995.

The 51-story building has 608 apartments, including studios, convertibles, 1-bedrooms and 2-bedrooms, plus parking for 381 cars.

“The CAMME awards represent the best in rental properties throughout Chicago. We are honored our marketing and management efforts have been recognized,” said Tricia Van Horn, vice president of marketing for NNP Residential, the managing firm.

“The Tides has been very successful due to an outstanding Shore Club amenity package, well-designed floor plans, fantastic views and one of the best locations in Chicago,” she said.

Lakeshore East is a new downtown neighborhood rising where the Chicago River meets Lake Michigan.

“What is most enjoyable about winning a CAMME Award is the look of pride on the faces of your employees when they truly know that their peers have rewarded all their efforts,” said Diana Pittro, president of RMK Management.

AMLI at Naperville

“We get really excited about the CAMME Awards every year,” said Darlene Egan, an AMLI regional manager. “I think winning an award is an honor to our people. It also is a great honor to be recognized by our peers and by the Chicagoland Apartment Association.

“Our secret to success is our people,” she said. “The people on-site maintain their properties in a consistent manner. So when the time comes, they’re ready for a nomination, and they present themselves well.”
