FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RMK Management Corp. and M & R Development President
Anthony Rossi, Sr. to Receive NHL's Lester Patrick Trophy
Award given for outstanding service to hockey in the United States

CHICAGO (October 11, 2011) – Chicago real estate executive Anthony Rossi, Sr. has been selected as a recipient of the prestigious Lester Patrick Trophy, an award presented annually by the National Hockey League to honor outstanding service to ice hockey in the United States.

The trophy, first awarded in 1966, is named after Lester Patrick, a legendary developer of ice hockey who had a lifelong history with the New York Rangers as player, coach and general manager.

Rossi, Sr., president of Chicago-based RMK Management Corp. and M & R Development, is being recognized for nearly 50 years of volunteer service to USA Hockey. He began his volunteer career in the 1970s and was later elected to the USA Hockey Board of Directors. In 1995, Rossi, Sr. was elected to the USA Hockey Executive Committee, and currently serves as vice president and international council chair for USA Hockey and as a member of the International Ice Hockey Federation Council. Rossi, Sr. is also credited with helping form the USA Hockey Foundation, a non-profit that provides financial support for USA Hockey.

"Tony has had an enormously positive impact on hockey in the United States and is most deserving of being honored with the Lester Patrick Trophy," said Dave Ogreaan, executive director of USA Hockey. "He genuinely cares about the advancement of the game and has graciously given of his time over the past 40-plus years to help make our sport better."

"Hockey has been such an important part of my life for so many years, so to have my name among the coaching and playing legends who have received this award is truly incredible," said Rossi, Sr.

Past recipients include Bobby Hull, Wayne Gretzky and Mario Lemieux. The other individuals being honored this year include former player and coach Mark Johnson, former coach and assistant to the commissioner of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association, Jeff Sauer, and Bob Pulford, Hockey Hall of Famer and coach and executive for the Chicago Blackhawks for the past 30 years.

The Lester Patrick Award celebration to honor the 2011 recipients will take place October 26th at the RiverCentre in St. Paul, Minn.
