FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RMK Management Corp. Receives 10 CAMME Awards

CHICAGO (November 2, 2011) – Chicago-based RMK Management Corp. was honored Friday with 10 Chicagoland Apartment Marketing and Management Excellence, or CAMME, awards at the 19th annual CAMME awards ceremony. These awards are presented by the Chicagoland Apartment Association, Apartments.com and the Chicago Tribune.

The CAMME Awards celebrate multi-family housing companies and professionals that have made significant contributions to or achieved excellence in the industry.

RMK was recognized in multiple categories including maintenance, management, leasing center, marketing, amenities and curb appeal. The communities awarded were Parc Huron in Chicago for electronic marketing; Versailles on the Lakes in Oakbrook for its maintenance team and curb appeal; Versailles on the Lakes in Schaumburg for curb appeal and amenities; and Bristol Station in Naperville for its leasing center.

Individuals from RMK communities were also recognized, including Craig Blackwell at Butterfield Oaks for maintenance chief; Eugene Augustynski at McClurg Court Center for maintenance; and Chris McCulskie from Bristol Station in Naperville for leasing consultant of the year. RMK's John Egan was also honored as the regional manager of the year.

"The CAMME awards are especially meaningful to us because they come from our industry peers. It is a true honor to have other multi-family professionals recognize our efforts," said Anthony Rossi, Sr., president of RMK Management Corp. "We are so proud of the excellent teams of people we have at the communities we manage, because it is their dedication and professionalism that makes each community special."
