RMK Management Corp. Honored With Nine CAMME Awards

CHICAGO (November 1, 2012) – Chicago-based RMK Management Corp. was the recipient of nine Chicagoland Apartment Marketing and Management Excellence (CAMME) awards at the 20th annual CAMME awards ceremony held last week at the Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile.

Presented by the Chicagoland Apartment Association, Apartments.com and the Chicago Tribune, the CAMME Awards celebrate multi-family housing companies and professionals that have made significant contributions to or achieved excellence in the industry.

RMK was honored in multiple categories including maintenance, curb appeal and renovation. The RMK communities recognized were McClurg Court in Chicago for outstanding maintenance team and unit renovation; and Scotland Yard in Chicago for outstanding maintenance team and curb appeal.

Individuals from RMK communities were also honored, including Marcin Zimin at McClurg Court for maintenance professional; Danny Garcia at McClurg Court for leasing professional; Kristin Bramwell at Farmington Lakes in Oswego for assistant to the property manager; Henry Hoch at Versailles on the Lakes Oakbrook Terrace for chief engineer/maintenance supervisor; and Tenisha Ameen at Scotland Yard for assistant to the property manager.

“We’re always honored to be recognized by our fellow professionals in the multi-family industry, and this year it was especially gratifying to see so many of our team members receive CAMMEs for their outstanding performance,” said Anthony Rossi, Sr., president of RMK Management Corp. “It’s the efforts of these individuals that make our communities such exceptional places to live, and I’m incredibly proud to see their hard work and professionalism acknowledged by their peers.”
